

Match three of the activities on the left that you associate with training for the first two sports you see below. Then match three of things to look out for on the right that you associate with these sports.

buy a baseball glove	baseball	flying balls stretch every day learn to swim
learn to throw	surfing

Answers for above

very big waves	buy a surfboard stormy weather	learn to swim sharks	stretch every day other players	run every day hot weather	learn to throw flying balls	glove
	buy a baseball

Now work with a partner. Ask your partner about the activities they associate with training for and the things to look out for in the two sports you see below. Write their answers below. Then let them ask you the same questions.

What should I do to play hockey?

To play hockey you ought to learn to ice skate.

Okay.

But look out for fights!

Learn to ice skate	hockey	fights basketball

Match three of the activities on the left that you associate with training for the first two sports you see below. Then match three of things to look out for on the right that you associate with these sports.

learn to ice skate

fights

learn to ice skate

learn to ice skate

Answers for above

learn to ice skate	hockey buy a helmet	buy a hockey stick holes in the ice	flying pucks hot weather	other players stretch every day	learn to shoot run every day	flying balls

Now work with a partner. Ask your partner about the activities they associate with training for and the things to look out for in the two sports you see below. Write their answers below. Then let them ask you the same questions.

What should I do to play baseball?

To play baseball you ought to buy a baseball glove.

Okay.

But look out for flying balls!

buy a baseball glove

flying balls

learn to ice skate

learn to ice skate