

VOA Broadcasting in Azerbaijani

The VOA Azerbaijani Service reaches audiences in Azerbaijan and neighboring provinces in Iran via the Internet, satellite and shortwave radio. The government has banned affiliation agreements between local and international broadcasters; however online news outlets in the country frequently reprint original reports and interviews of the Azerbaijani Service.

Quick Facts

- Established: June 1982
- Target Area: Azerbaijan and Iran
- Radio Programming: A daily 15-minute feed via satellite audio channel
- TV Programming: 65 minutes per week, reports available on web, and via satellite Monday through Saturday.

Programs and additional features available at:

www.amerikaninsesi.org

Facebook:

Voa Azerbaijani

Twitter:

@voaazeri

YouTube:

Programs and Features

TV

World View is a 6-minute news program featuring at least 5 international news stories and technology reports airing Monday-Friday.

American Review is a 25-minute weekly magazine show that features interviews and original news reports on various topics of interest to the audience.

Showbiz News is a 10-minute program featuring original reports about American society. Airls every Friday.

Radio

A daily 15-minute feed broadcast via Hotbird satellite's audio channels. It includes original and stringer reports, and interviews with analysts, activists, as well as family members of political prisoners.

Web

It offers written reports as well as video and audio of the day's top news stories from Azerbaijan, Iranian Azerbaijan, the United States and the world.