Programs and Features

The Service produces a 90-minute program, Monday-Thursday, from 1700-1830 UTC. Friday broadcast airs for two hours (from 1630-1830 UTC) including a one-hour long Angola call-in.

The 90-minute weekday program takes a comprehensive look at the day's events, including business and sports, interviews, reports, and features.

The first half-hour includes Angola Window, which covers the daily lives of Angolans with stringers based in Luanda (the capital) and in all of the country's provinces. On weekends, Angola Window focuses on current political issues, as well as social and cultural themes.

On Fridays, it offers a 60-minute call-in show, Angola, Fala Só (Just Say It) from 16:30-17:30 UTC in which a guest answers questions from listeners from Angola.

On Saturday and Sunday, the Service broadcasts a 60-minute show from 1700-1800 UTC. Broadcast highlights include Your Health, Agenda Africa, Themes and Debates, Arts and Entertainment, Politics in Angola & Top Ten, Angola's Human Face or Angola's Culture, Ask Dr. Nidia and Listener Club.

Washington Fora d'horas (Washington After Hours) is a fast paced daily 30-minute Facebook Live show providing breaking news in politics, economics and social issues all over the world and in Lusophone Africa. It includes videos produced in Washington and by stringers in Africa.

Passadeira Vermelha (Red Carpet) is a 15-minute weekly program that covers the latest in celebrity news, fashion, sports, film and television around the world.

VOA Portuguese to Africa currently has two TV affiliates in Mozambique which air VOA60Africa, VOA60Mundo, VOA60Americ, Red Carpet and Washington Bureau, four radio affiliates in Guinea-Bissau, and one radio affiliate in Cape Verde. In addition, the service has one TV affiliate in Cape Verde which uses VOA60s products, Red Carpet and other videos produced by the service. The service has also a new partnership with National TV in Mozambique.
