__________________________________________________________________________

Photo

Put photos or pictures here of things you hope to do, and share them with your group:
Vocabulary

Look at the pictures below. Practice pronunciation of the words with your teacher. Then match the words to the picture. Can the same words be used with more than one picture? Why?

healthy, loving, wise

rich, famous, strong

dream, disabled (blind)
Read-Write-Talk

True or False

Write T for true or F for false.

1. _____ I am a healthy person.
2. _____ I am not a strong person.
3. _____ I am rich in many ways.
4. _____ It is more important to be loving than wise.
5. _____ I hope to be famous someday.

Group Work

1. Compare your “True or False” answers above. What does it mean to be healthy?

2. How can you know if someone is strong?

3. Is it possible to be rich in more than one way? Why?

4. Is it possible to be loving in more than one way? Why?

5. In your group, who wants to be famous? What does she want to be famous for?

Activity – A Timeline About Me

Make a timeline about your past, present, and future. Put the year and the event. You can add as many events as you like.

Past

The Hilwe w Morra Story

Listen and read along.

Auntie Hala: Nadine, what are you working on now?
Nadine: It's a dress for one of the triplets. I hope it will fit.
Auntie Hala: Your sewing is always so beautiful.
Samar: Mother, you took your embroidery to the shopping mall last week, right?
Nadine: Yes, I did because there was a contest.
Samar: Well, someone called from the mall because you won first prize!
Joumana: You will be famous!
Nadine: Oh, I don't think so!
Joumana: Did she win any money?
Samar: Yes, 300 dollars.
Joumana: That's a lot of money!
Samar: What do you plan to do with the money?
Nadine: My goodness. I'm so surprised. I don't know what I will do.
Joumana: I can think of a lot to do with that much money.
Auntie Hala: I imagine so . . .

Reading
“Girls Ride to School on Bicycles”

Guess
Think about the title “Girls Ride to School on Bicycles.” Do you think these sentences about the two stories are T (true) or F (false)? Guess.

  1. _____This is a story about more than one girl.
  2. _____The girls want to go to school.
  3. _____The schools are far from their homes.
  4. _____The girls ride horses.
  5. _____The girls ride school buses.
Pictures – What Do You See?
Now look at the two photos from the story.

1. Who do you see? Describe the photos:

________________________________________________________________________________________

2. Where are the people in the story? Guess.

________________________________________________________________________________________
Listen-Read-Find

Listen to the story. Now listen again. Find five or more words or phrases about girls and schools (for example, walk to school, stay at home, went back to school . . .).

Girls Ride to School on Bicycles

In poor countries, many children do not have a way to go to school.

They may walk many kilometers to school because their families do not have money for transport.

When the children walk to school, parents are afraid for their safety.

So, sometimes, they keep their children at home. Or, other times, the child stops going to school.

Parents may also keep their kids at home to help to grow food and take care of the other children.

This is a big problem for girls.

The costs of school fees, books, and meals also keep children out of school. With little money, parents often send their boy children to school before they send the girls.

Loise Luseno is a 16-year-old girl from Kakamega, Kenya. In the past, she walked almost 10 kilometers to go to school. But then, she stopped going because it was too far away.

The people in her family are farmers. They get only about $30 each month – not enough for food, school costs, and transport.

But, a few months ago, Luseno went back to school on a bicycle.

World Bicycle Relief, an American group, donated the bicycle. The group donates bicycles to help children go to school.

The bicycle program has donated about 7,000 bicycles around Kenya. Most of the people receiving them are girls.

The head of the program in Kenya says the bikes have improved the lives of children.

-----------------------------

Words in This Story

1. transport (noun) – movement by car or bus or another way
2. kid / kids (noun) – child / children
3. fee / fees (noun) – money to pay for school costs
4. donate / donated (verb) – give / gave at no cost
5. improve / improved (verb) – make / made something better

What’s the Buzz?

First, practice the questions with the teacher. Then talk to two students in the class and ask them all of the questions. Write their answers below so you can remember them.

Imagine you won a contest and $1 million . . .

1. What would you like to do for fun?

2. Is there any place you would like to go?

3. Will you help your family?

4. Will you do anything for your community?

5. Will you make the world more beautiful or a better place somehow?

Discuss with Your Group

1. What would you all like to do for fun?
2. Where would you all like to go?

______________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________

Discuss with the Teacher All Together

1. What will you all do to help your families or communities?

______________________________________________________________

2. What will you all do to make the world more beautiful or a better place?

  Do: This is another game. Answer the questions to see what your future will be. Are they the same as the first quiz? Bring your answers to class and share them.

Supplementary Activities

Flashcards

At the end of each unit, there is a set of flashcards with some of the vocabulary from the unit. You can copy them by hand onto paper or enlarge and photocopy them. Cut out the cards and create your own sets of flashcards. You can make new cards and add more words too.

Sorting Game

Work in pairs or groups. Sort the flashcards in these ways:

- things about your past / present / future
- things you dream about
- things you plan to do in the future
- things that are true about you
- things that are true about someone you know

Unit 8: Plans and Dreams

Warm-up

There are no wrong answers to the warm-up activities. This encourages independent thinking and gives students an opportunity to personalize their learning.

Choose

In this section, students can choose any of the options. They can work individually or with a partner.

Discuss

In this section, students can talk about the topic for this unit and connect it to their own experiences and preferences.

Photo

This section lets students personalize the activity and link it to their own lives. It also offers a hands-on element to their learning.

Vocabulary

These more complete definitions, in alphabetical order, are from the Merriam-Webster Learner’s Dictionary (http://www.learnersdictionary.com/):

- blind (adjective) – unable to see
- disabled (adjective) – unable to perform one or more natural activities because of illness, injury, etc.
- dream (verb) – to think or imagine what may be possible in the future
- famous (adjective) – known or recognized by very many people
- healthy (adjective) – having good health, not sick or injured
- loving (adjective) – feeling or showing love
- rich (adjective) – having a lot of money and possessions
- strong (adjective) – having great physical power and ability
- wise (adjective) – having or showing wisdom or knowledge usually from learning or experiencing many things
Read-Write-Talk

There are no wrong answers to this exercise. This is another example of student-centered learning.

The Hilwe w Morra Story

“Hilwe w Morra” loosely translated from Arabic means “Sweet and Sour,” representing the universal mix of life’s events. This is a serial, soap opera-style story that continues throughout the book, unit by unit. Each unit gives more information about the women and the things that are happening in their lives.

The bold words are the vocabulary focus. Note that the grammar focus for this unit is the future with “will” and “want to” and “would like to.”

Words in This Story – Answer Key

These more complete definitions are from the Merriam-Webster Learner’s Dictionary (http://www.learnersdictionary.com):

Choose the best answer:

1. fit (verb) = to be the right size
2. contest (noun) = you try to win this
3. win / won (verb) = you do / did it the best
4. prize (noun) = a gift for being the best
5. famous (adjective) = many people know you

Vocabulary from “The Hilwe w Morra Story”

These more complete definitions, in alphabetical order, are from the Merriam-Webster Learner’s Dictionary (http://www.learnersdictionary.com):

contest (noun) – an event in which people try to win by doing something better than others famous (adjective) – known or recognized by very many people; having fame fit (verb) – to be the right size and shape for (someone or something) prize (noun) – something that is won in a contest or given as an award win / won (verb) – to achieve victory in a fight, contest, game, etc.
Reading
“Girls Ride to School on Bicycles”
This is a true story that was adapted from the news. It intentionally mirrors the theme of plans and dreams.

Guess – Answer Key
Students try to predict the content of the story just from the title. This is a critical thinking skill and an important reading strategy. Have students go back after they read the story to see if they were right or wrong in their guesses.

1. T = This is a story about more than one girl.
2. T = The girls want to go to school.
3. T = The schools are far from their homes.
4. F = The girls ride horses.
5. F = The girls ride school buses.

Pictures – What Do You See?
Now look at the two photos from the story.

1. Who do you see? Describe the photos.
2. Where are the people in the story? Guess.

This is an opportunity to review and use the “Describe, Interpret, Evaluate” process from Unit 7. The first step is only describing the facts about what you see. In the first picture, for example, there are many young people in a room. In the second picture, there are two girls riding on one bicycle together, with their backpacks.

For the second step, you can explore (interpret) what might be happening. In the first picture for example, maybe they are in a school in Africa (Zimbabwe? South Africa? Mozambique?)? In the second picture, maybe the girls are riding the bicycle to school. Maybe they are friends or cousins or sisters? Maybe they are in India or Bangladesh or . . . ? Maybe one or more of the people from the pictures will be in the story?

Reading the story provides some of the answers but maybe not all of them. What else would your students like to know about the girls and pictures?
Vocabulary from the Reading
These more complete definitions, in alphabetical order, are from the Merriam-Webster Learner's Dictionary (http://www.learnersdictionary.com/):

- donate / donated (verb) – to give (money, food, clothes, etc.) in order to help a person or organization
- fee / fees (noun) – an amount of money that must be paid
- improve / improved (verb) – to make (something) better
- kid / kids (noun) – a son or daughter
- transport (noun) – the act or process of moving people or things from one place to another

What’s the Buzz?
This activity lets students personalize what they have been learning in this unit.

Writing
Imagine . . .
This activity is an opportunity to use the target grammar forms for this unit and to reinforce the idea of different perspectives and different views on the world from Unit 7.

Spinner for Wheel of Futures

Print the following page and glue it to a piece of cardboard such as a shirt cardboard or part of a corrugated box. Use a round plastic lid from a yogurt tub or cut out the circle below and glue it to a piece of cardboard. Mark an arrow at one point of the disk. Push a push-pin through the center of the lid or cardboard circle, and into the center of the graphic for the wheel. Use a pencil eraser behind the graphic to prevent the pin from scratching a table or a student.

Cut out the "Possible Futures" cards and place on stickie notes around the outer edge of the wheel for students to choose. Feel free to create your own or have students help you create some interesting future hopes and dreams.
