

VOA Broadcasting in French to Africa

VOA's French to Africa service produces a broad mix of news and interactive programming for radio, television, and the Internet. On shortwave, VOA targets 22 francophone countries in sub-Saharan Africa. On FM, VOA is broadcast on 24/7 transmitters in Abidjan, Bamako, Bangui, Brazzaville, Bujumbura, Bukavu, Dakar, Gao, Goma, Kananga, Kigali, Kisangani, Lubumbashi, Matadi, Mbuji-Mayi, N'djamena, Niamey, Ouagadougou, Pointe Noire, and Timbuktu. VOA provides an alternative to state-owned and/or supported media that dominate the airwaves in many of these countries. Although independent radio and television stations are making some advances, many remain subject to government interference.

Quick Facts

Established:	March 1960
Target Areas:	22 francophone sub-Saharan countries
Languages:	French, Lingala, Sango, Wolof
SW Radio:	22.5 hours per week (3.5 hours, Monday - Friday, and 2.5 hours, Saturday & Sunday)

TV Programming: 3 hrs., 30 min per week

Programs and features available at:

www.VOAAfrique.com

Facebook:
VOAAfrique

X:
@voafrench

FM Stream:
www.voanews.com/wm/live/live-frenchtoafrica-a.aspx

Programs and Features

TV

LMA TV (Le Monde Aujourd'hui)— A daily television show (Monday thru Friday) with U.S. and international news, reports from correspondents in Africa and in-studio analysis of business, technology, social media, and sports. LMA TV is broadcast by television affiliates in Kinshasa, Lubumbashi, Brazzaville, Cotonou, Douala, Bamako, Niamey, Lome, and Abidjan.

Vous+Nous – A program that focuses on the positive, even incredible, things young people are doing in the U.S. and Africa to improve their lives and communities.

Carnet de Santé – A 15-minute weekly health show focused on prevention and practical solutions for Africans, including pregnancy, easy hygiene practices, fitness and healthy eating habits. The show also informs viewers of the latest health breakthroughs – from HIV prevention and treatment to overcoming food and water borne diseases, reducing malaria rates or treating cancer.

Washington Forum – An in-depth debate and discussion program. It airs via dozens of top TV affiliates in the region.

VOA60 Afrique – A one-minute roundup of the region's top stories each day. It is published online and shown on affiliate TV stations.

FOCUS SAHEL: Dedicated to the region of Sahel which is facing major challenges in terms of security, with an uptick in terrorist attacks and a push of jihadi groups towards coastal countries such as Benin, Togo and Ivory Coast. The show highlight the issues of terrorism, disinformation, the refugee and displaced crisis, good governance, etc. Every Tuesday at 18:00 UTC

Radio

Le Monde Aujourd'hui – A 30-minute news magazine focused on issues and perspectives of greatest relevance to the francophone region in Africa. Following a 10-minute roundup of African, U.S. and international news, the program features interviews with stringers and newsmakers who discuss in-depth the latest issues of interest for listeners in francophone Africa. Le Monde Aujourd'hui airs Monday through Friday at 0530, 0600, 1830, and 1930 UTC on shortwave. On most FM streams the show can be heard from 0530 to 0830 UTC and at 1730, 1830, and 1930 UTC.

A Votre Avis – This open-mike show gives voice to VOA Afrique's listeners, who can react on various topics, every day at 1805 UTC. They leave their comments and numbers on our Facebook page to participate in this live show.

L'Amérique et Vous – An interactive radio program on Fridays at 1905 UTC with experts, reports, and listeners by phone and Facebook who can discuss American issues and U.S. foreign policy as it affects Africa.

Le Dialogue des Religions – An interactive radio program every Wednesday at 1905 UTC in which theologians, religious leaders, and listeners use the phone and Facebook to discuss topical issues of religion, including traditional African religions.

Le Monde au Féminin – A 25-minute radio-on-TV magazine show that focuses on women and youth issues. It airs on Tuesdays and Saturdays at 1905 UTC, and the video is posted on VOA Afrique Facebook page.

Votre Santé, Votre Avenir – A 25-minute radio health show offering practical tips for taking care of your health and for dealing with diseases such as AIDS. Testimonies and medical opinions punctuate the show, during which viewers' questions on Facebook are put on healthcare experts.

Apprenez L'anglais – Every day, for half an hour, the program helps listeners improve their proficiency in the English language.

RM Show – A fun, lively, and interactive issues and entertainment show heard every Monday to Friday from 2000 UTC. The host uses music and chat to entertain and discuss serious social issues with mostly young listeners from across the continent.

Focus Sahel – Every week, Focus Sahel, VOA Afrique's newest show addresses the urgent issues facing the Sahel, as well as the challenges and opportunities that characterize this region regarding the issues of security, terrorism, development and cultural changes. Focus Sahel is a 30-minute weekly show that airs on radio and Facebook Live.

SANGO

Zia i tene – This 30-minute radio program offers several segments on national and international news, interviews, analysis and reactions on various topics, with a special section highlighting various Central African artists.